Dear Sir:

Just received a letter from you the other day in regard to the pamphlet "Why War?" that I sent you last week.

Lehmann was re-elected governer - as you perhaps know - and there is nothing to brag about that Masonry reduced his plurality from 700,000 to 50,000. Besides, your claim must be regarded as untrue as long as you can't prove what you wrote.

What's the purpose of having enclosed a copy of another letter addressed to the editor of the "Click"? A threat against me by inference, or what? That's the usual Masonic method of intimidation. Of course, neither my associates nor myself will ever stop our patriotic work because of threats, intimidations, or violence — not even murder will ever stop the movement to get rid of Masonry and other international groups of a more or less Jewish character. Write that down, [redacted]

Yours truly,
